Susquehannock

1975

COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL

Eileen,

Well I guess this is it. This may be the last yearbook I have to sign, but it is the first day of the rest of our lives together. I love you

Doug.

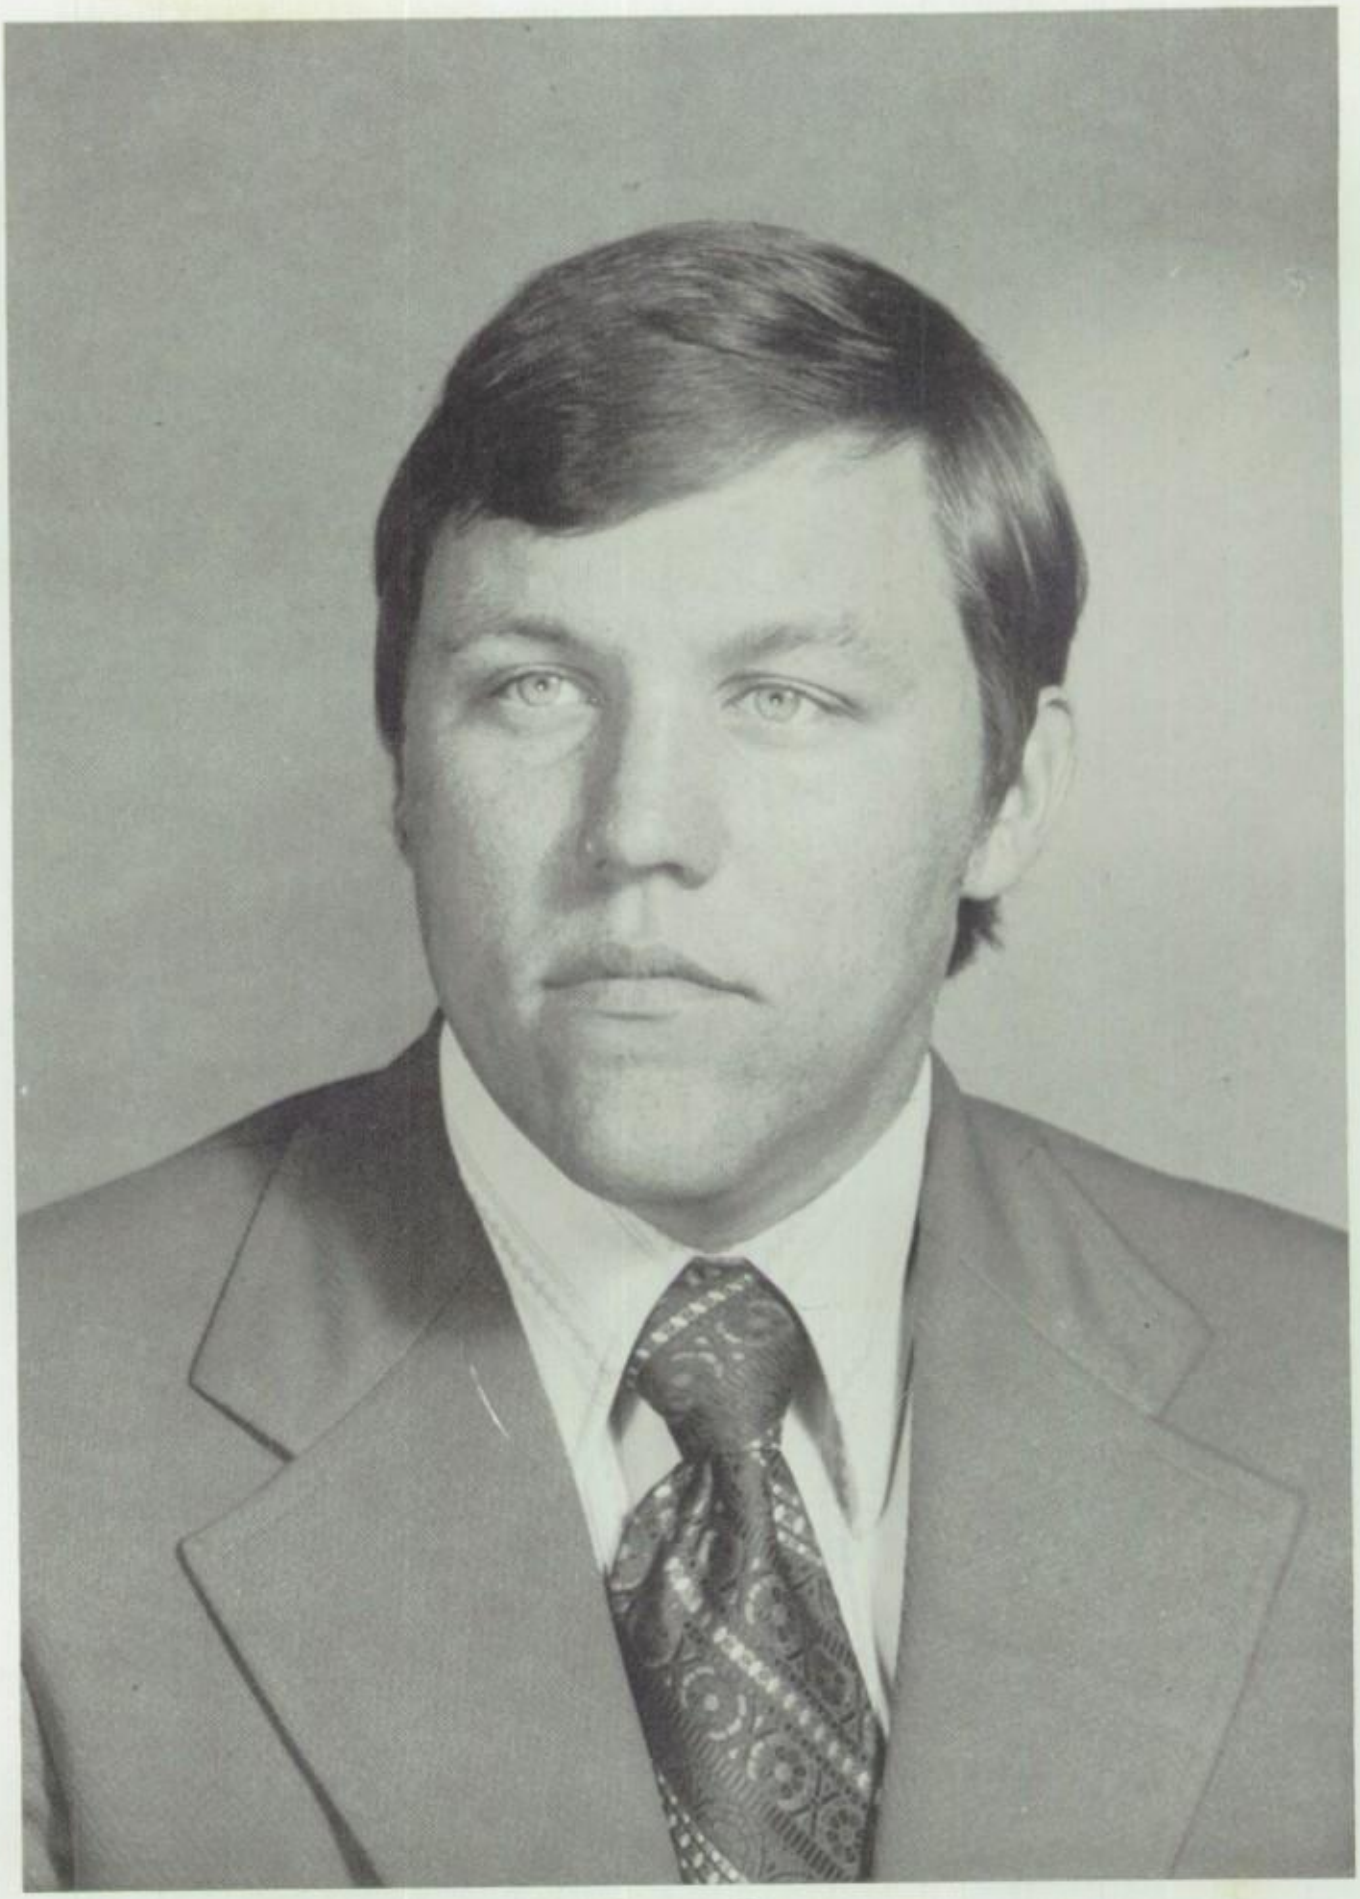
DEDICATION



John Bradley

Taller and straighter
Than any tree could ever stand
Will always be the Love of life
You've brought my way
Yes, tall and Straight I will always stay
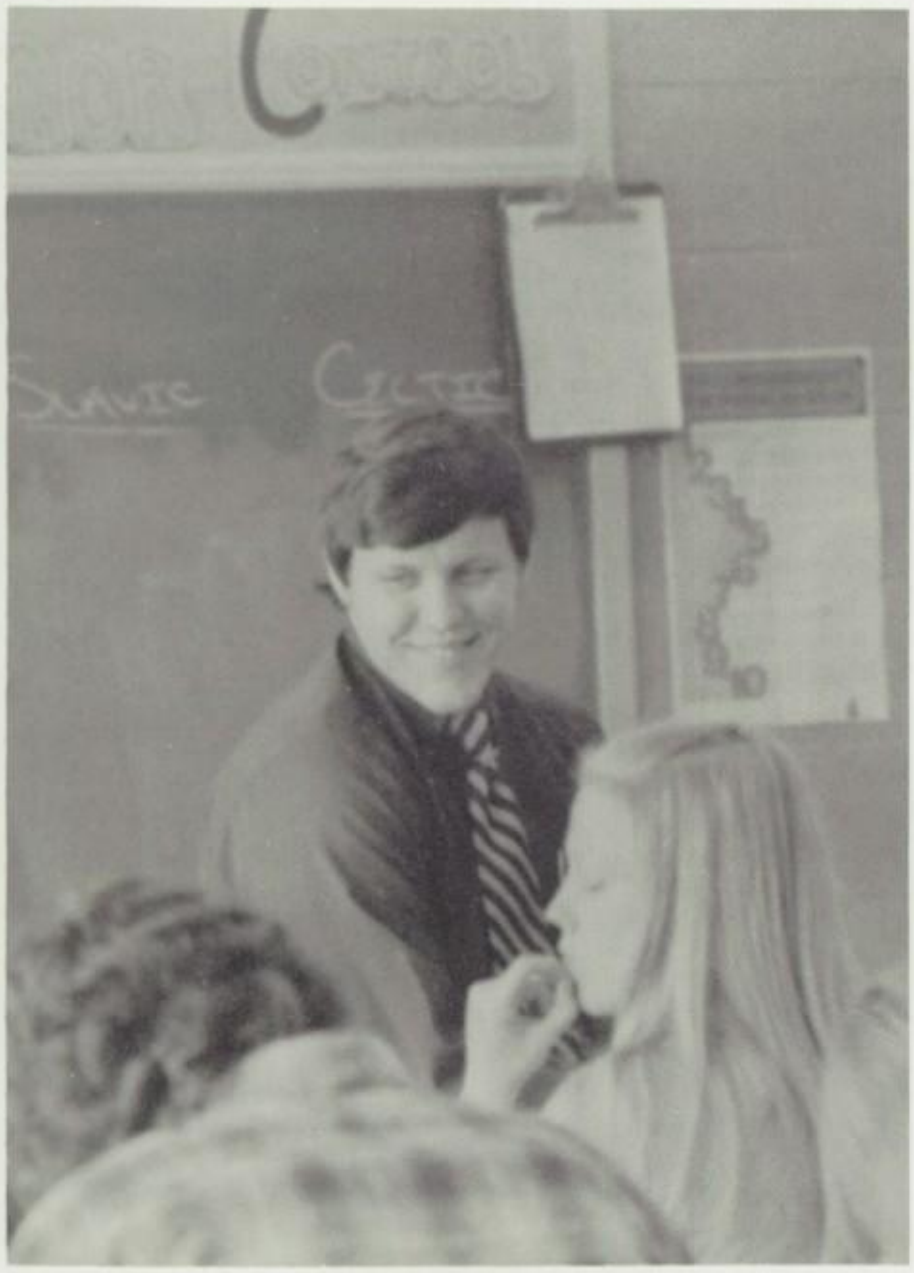
But always send
A little help my way

Richard Albert



Many teachers have helped us throughout our years at C.H.S., but one has stood above the rest. For his worthiness, we, the graduating class of 1975 would like to dedicate this year's Susquehannock to Mr. John Bradley. For the many hours he gave to us, in the classroom and out, we would like to show him our sincere appreciation and bestow upon him the highest honor the seniors can give.

The way we were . . .

Memories light the corners of my mind,

Misty water-colored memories . . .

Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind,

Smiles we gave to one another . . .

Could it be that it was all so simple then,

Or has time rewritten

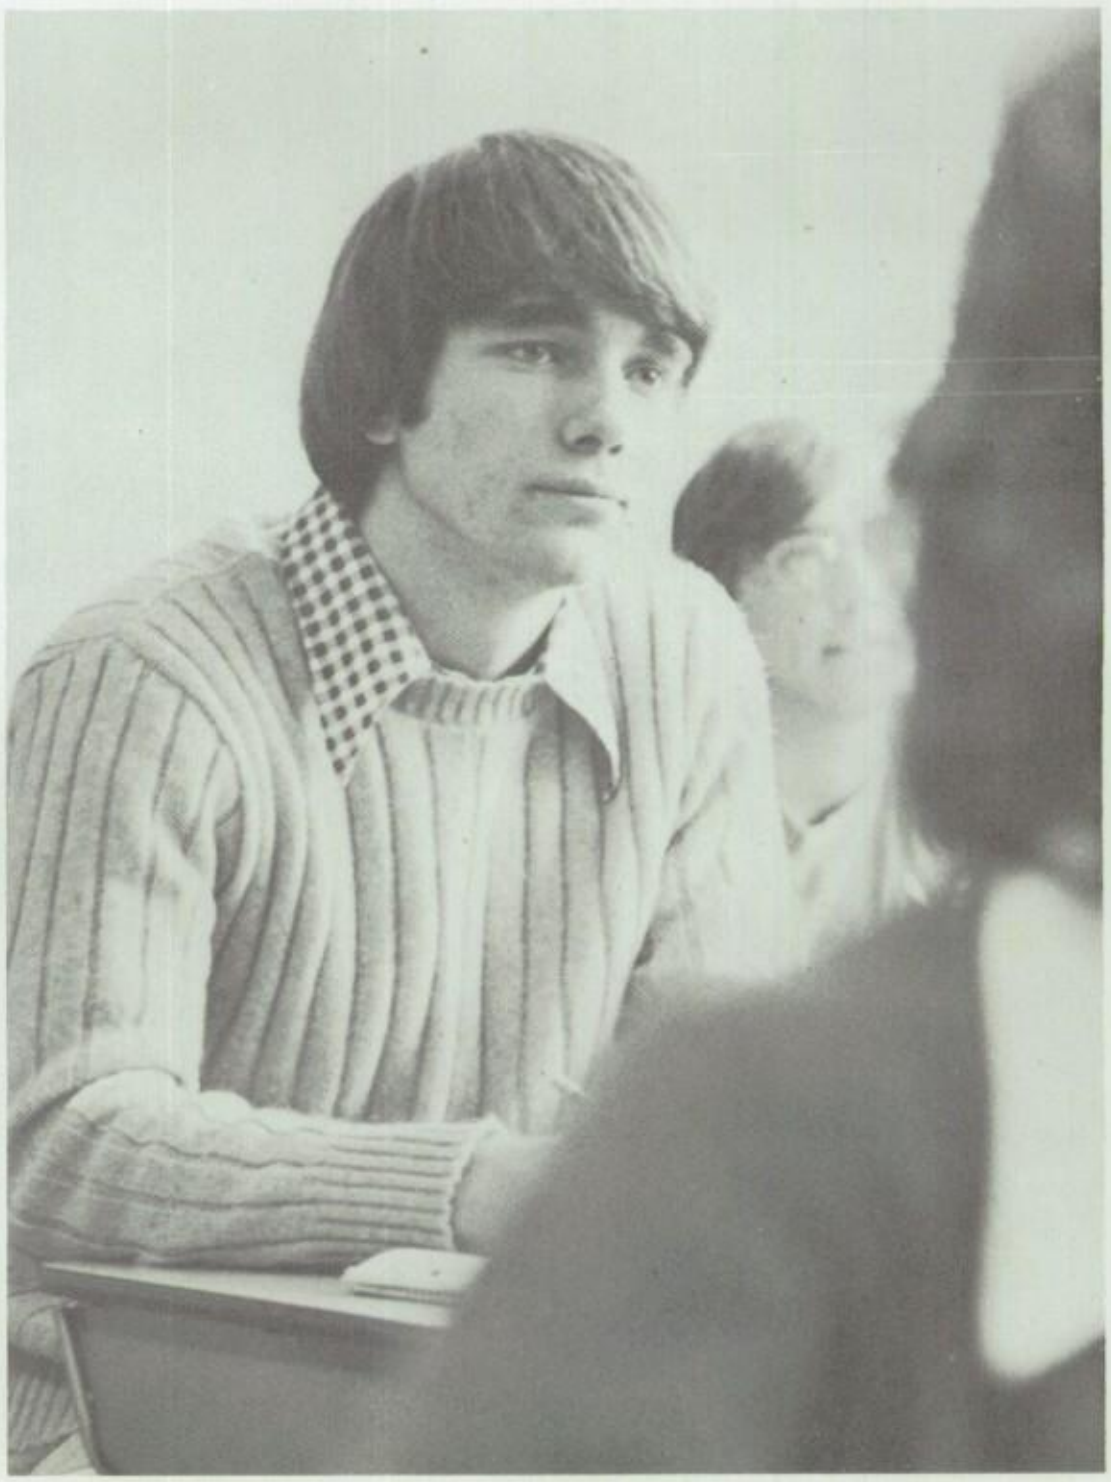
every line?

If we had the chance to do

it all again,

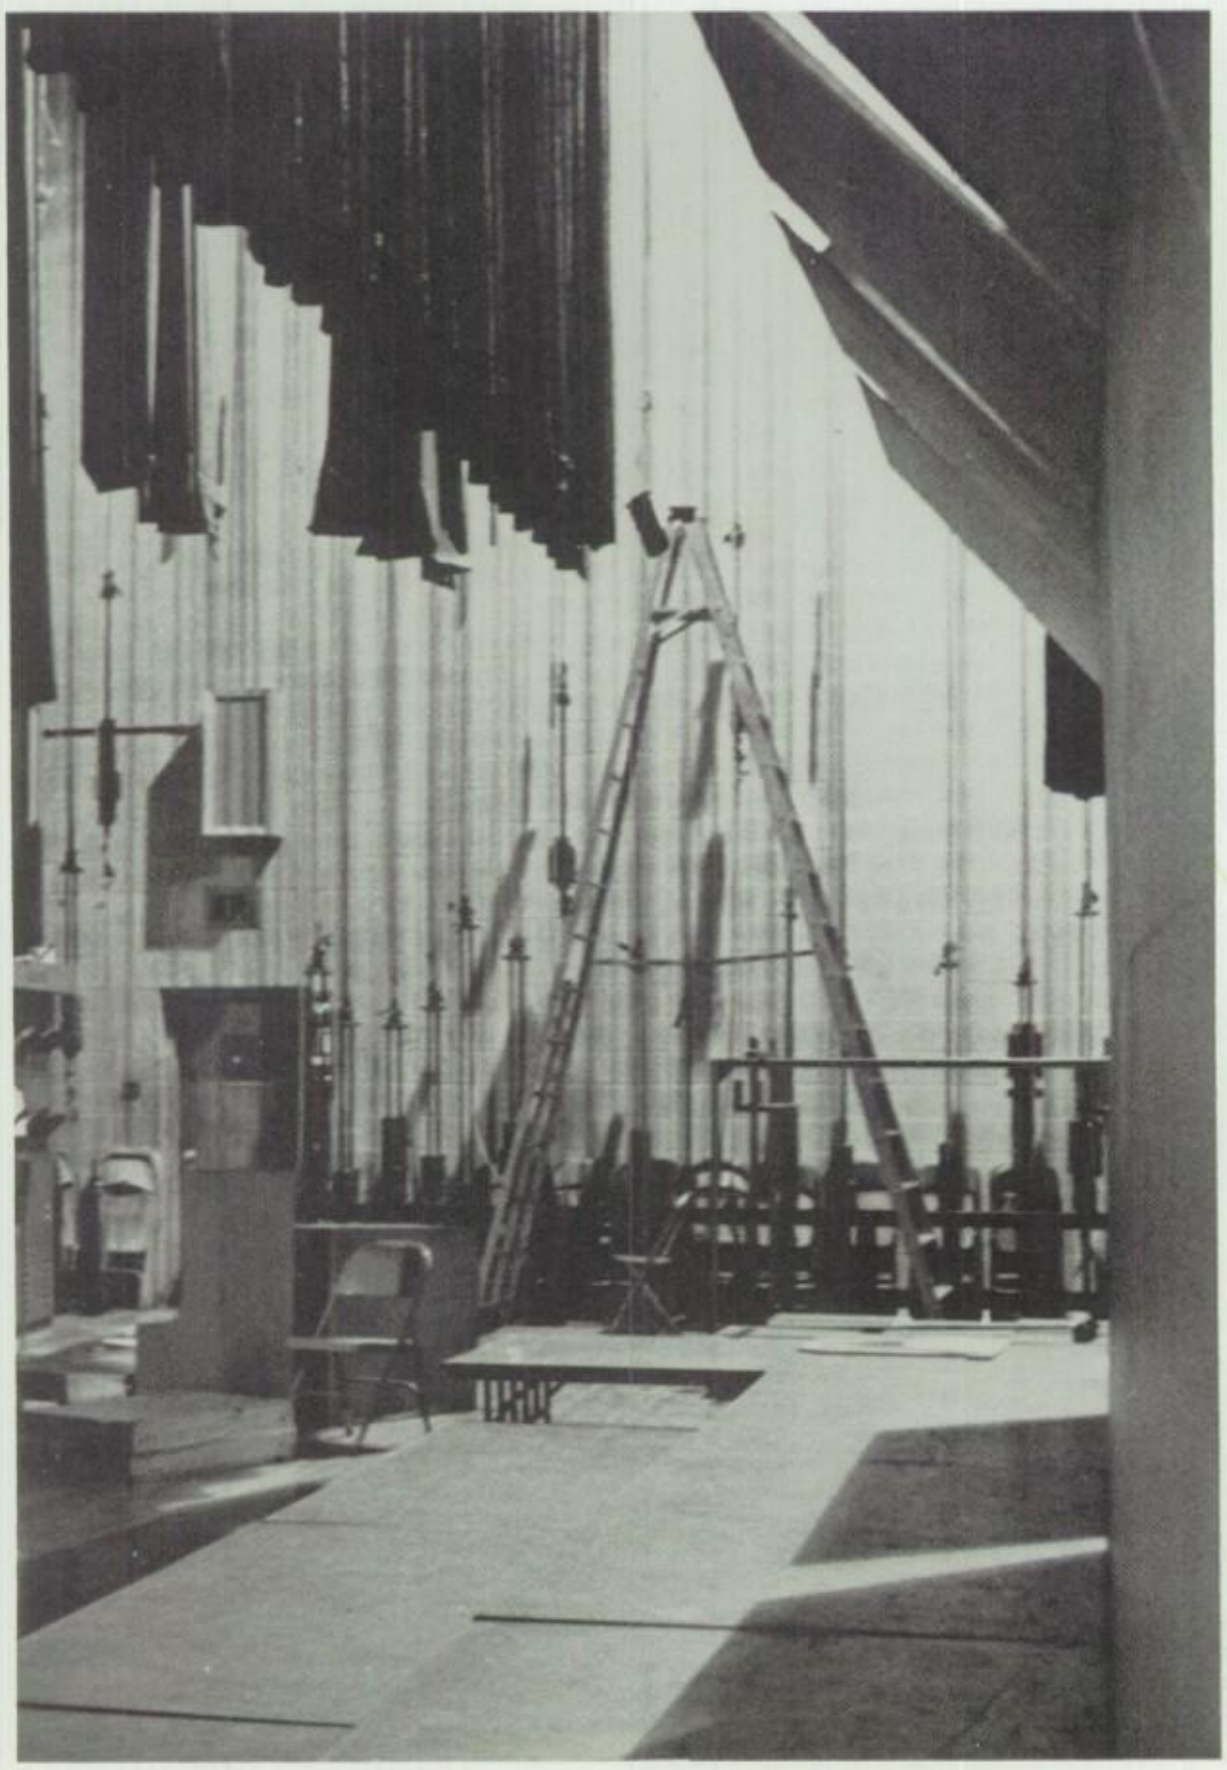
Tell me would we; could we?

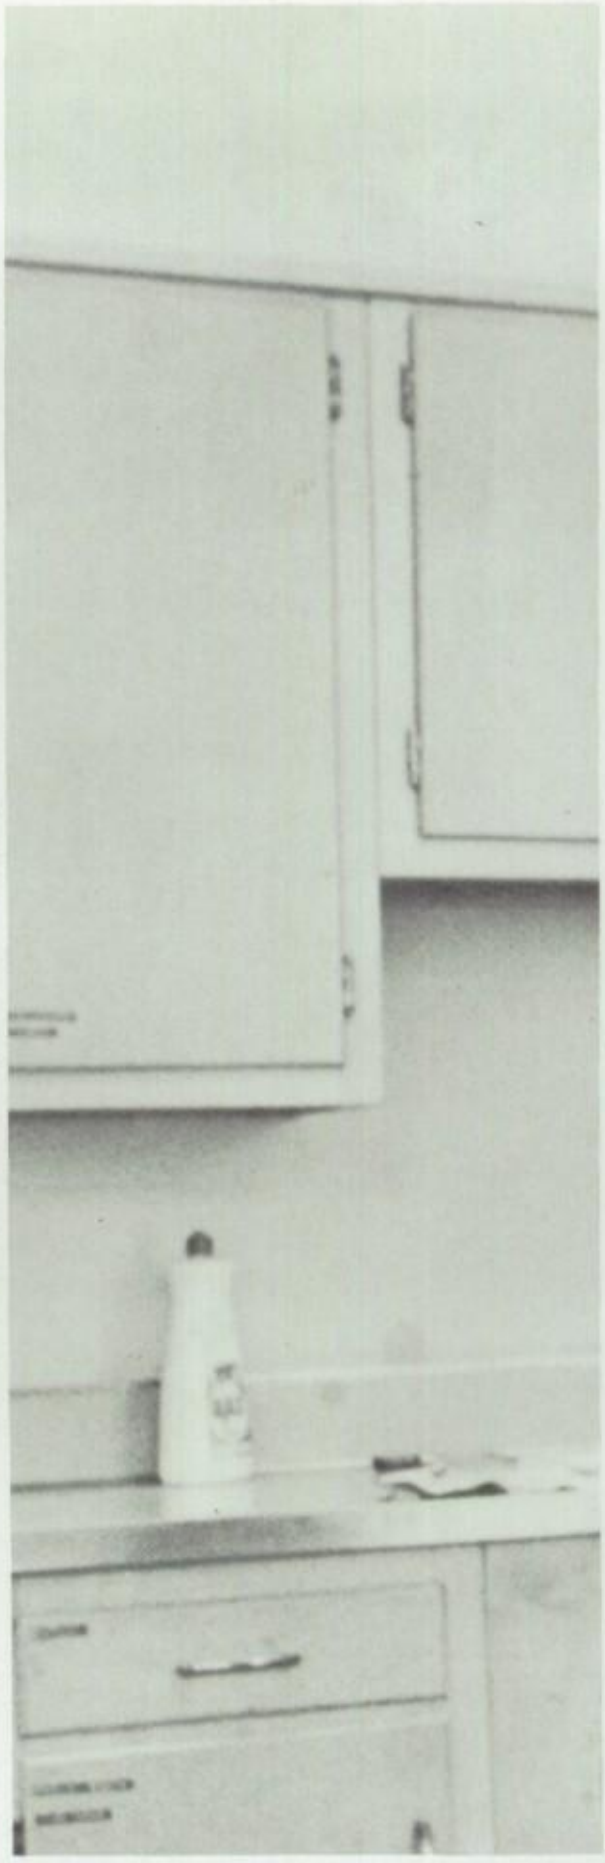
Memories may be beautiful and yet,
What's too painful to remember,
we simply choose to forget.



So it's the laughter

we will remember,





Whenever we remember . . .

The way we were.

"The Way We Were"

Memories light the corners of my mind;
Misty water-colored memories
of the way we were.
Scattered Pictures of the smiles
we left behind Smiles we have to one another
of the way we were
Can it be that it was all so simple then
Or has time rewritten every line?
If we had the chance to do it all

A GLIMPSE OF THE PAST

Yesterday . . .
went by so quickly,
opening the doors
for us to enter in,
but now - it's just
a glimpse of the past.
Happiness . . .
with smiles and laughter
soon catch us crying
for memories,
that were once with us
will be,
just a glimpse of the past.
Tomorrow . . .
the sun shall shine brightly,
casting its rays upon the roads,
we shall journey through life.
And with a smile we will remember,
the way we were,
as just a glimpse of the past.

"Memories, light the corners of my mind. Misty water-colored memories, of the way we were." Our high school years - a time of learning, a time of growing, a very special way of life, have come to an end. The way we were during those years, we shall never be again. So let's take time to think back and remember the beautiful moments we shared together as a class.

The memories all began for us on . . .

Sept. 3, 1969: A new class of bewildered 7th graders, bursting with excitement, entered the halls of CHS. It was a day of learning schedules and getting lost, of making new friends, of new teachers and new experiences - it was a day of growing up as the class of 1975 officially made its debut.
Nov. 1969: We chose our first leaders. They were: Pres. - Brian Keck, Vice Pres. - Cindy Myers, Secretary - Kim Hershey and Treas. - Carrol Fleming.
Jan. 22, 1970: The eight-graders entertained us in the gym at our first 7th and 8th grade party with volleyball games, a band and refreshments.
Feb. 29, 1970: Anne Denney and Joy Ratcliff defeated 25 other spellers to win the Jr. High Spelling Bee.
May 1, 1970: Richard Bowers, Brian Keck, Felton Poindexter, and Keith Simms represented our class in the May Day celebration as pages.

Before we knew it, our first year had come and gone, and our thoughts turned to eighth grade . . .

Sept. 9, 1970: Our class returned, feeling like old pros - smiling at the mistakes and terror of the 7th graders.
Sept. 18, 1970: We elected our 8th grade officers. Leading our class were Pres. - Brian Keck, Vice Pres. - Carrol Fleming, Secretary - Cindy Myers and Treas. - Terri Ward.
Jan. 23, 1971: It was our turn to host the 7th graders at an evening of fun and games in the gym.
Feb. 17, 1971: Our class enjoyed its share of spills and thrills as we journeyed to Meadow Valley Ski Area for a ski trip.
Mar. 13, 1971; Fifteen members of our class were inducted into the National Jr. Honor Society. New members included: Lynne Beck, Paula Houseal, Joy Ratcliff, Terri Ward, Anne Denney, Carrol Fleming, Eileen Smoker, Mike Keiper, Tom McCarthy, Kerry Kohl, Steve Stehman, Brian Keck, Donna Swisher, Antoinette Deascenti, and Rick Long.

Later in the spring, members of our class were honored with awards from two community organizations. Donna Swisher, Terri Ward, Kerry Kohl, Beth Lutz, Antoinette Deascenti and Brian Keck received D.A.R. awards and Buff Hollingsworth and Rick Bowers received awards from the American Legion.

Eighth Grade - the year of the undefeated football team, of "Annie Get Your Gun," of the "Charlie Brown" magazine skit - all too soon it was over and we looked forward to taking over the leadership of the junior high.

Sept. 8, 1971: We were officially high school students as we took on the name of Freshmen and welcomed our new friends from the parochial schools.
Sept. 17, 1971; We chose our 9th grade leaders by electing: Pres. - Brian Keck, Vice Pres. - Rick Bowers, Secretary - Scott Zeamer, and Treas. - Cindy Myers. The Jr. High Student Council was led by: Pres. - Brian Keck, Vice Pres. - Chris Bucher, Secretary - Paula Houseal and Treas. - Rick Long.
Feb. 1972 - Our junior high basketball team officially reached its undefeated status. Members were: Steve Stehman, Mike Keiper, Karl Kreiser, Scott Derr, Warren Draper, Neal Howard, Rick Bowers, Bob Holdsworth and Mike Smith.
Feb. 11, 1972: Our three Sir Valentine candidates were Karl Kreiser, Brian Keck, and Scott Zeamer. When the pennies were counted, Karl Kreiser was declared the Jr. High Sir Valentine.
Mar. 10, 1972: Thirteen more members of the class of '75 joined the ranks of the Jr. Honor Society. The new inductees were: Marjorie Staman, Kathy Graham, Rose Horn, Joe Fry, Lorrie Westenhoefer, Dean Markley, Karl Kreiser, Mike Smith, Richard Stepanchak, Amy Reitzel, Sharon Smith, Diane Haberstroh and Cindy Myers. The Jr. Honor Society was under the leadership of: Brian Keck - Pres., Antoinette Deascenti - Vice Pres., Lynne Beck - Secretary and Tom McCarthy - Treasurer.

May 5, 1972: The Freshman class selected Miss Kim Hershey to reign as our lovely May Princess in the 28th annual May Day exercises.

Ninth grade - so many memories - the year of the convention in Mr. Goehring's history seminar - of the first bomb scare - of bobby socks in the spring - of learning to dance in gym class - all over so quickly as we looked ahead to Senior High.

Sept. 9, 1972: "We've only just begun," was the seniors' theme, and it was appropriate for our class as we began Senior High.

Sept. 19, 1972: The officers elected to lead us through our sophomore year were: Pres. - Karl Kreiser, Vice Pres. - Diane Haberstroh, Secretary - Lynne Beck and Treas. - Karen Kissinger.

Nov. 1972: Several members of our class participated in the seniors' production of "Deadwood Dick," the Senior Class play.

March 1973: Steve Stehman brought recognition to CHS by capturing top awards at the annual Lancaster County Science Fair.

Tenth grade - it was a year of beginnings as members of our class began their careers in varsity sports and joined Sr. High organizations. Another year passed, another summer gone, and we returned as Juniors, one year closer to graduation.

Sept. 5, 1973: It was hard to believe we were Juniors. All of a sudden graduation didn't seem so far away after all.

Sept. 14, 1973: Our newly-elected officers had a prom to organize and a year of hard work ahead. They were: Pres. - Diane Haberstroh, Vice Pres. - Bill Wolpert, Secretary - Kim Hershey, Treas. - Antoinette Deascenti and Historian - Anne Denney.

Sept. 21, 1973: Our class gave the magazine assembly a taste of the 50's when we raced down the aisle to the tune of "Leader of the Pack." Later, the juniors defeated the seniors in the magazine campaign - which entitled us to throw a pie at Bill "Stubby" Myers in front of the entire assembly.

Nov. 16-17, 1973: Many members of our class participated in "Peter Pan," the Senior class play. Bill Wolpert became known for his acting ability and often portrayed Groucho Marx during assemblies.

Dec. 12, 1973: James Kline and Anne Denney were selected for the Lower Southern District Band festival. They were later chosen for the County Band festival along with Bob Holdsworth, Tom McCarthy and Carrol Fleming.

Dec. 27, 1973; The Crimson Tide Basketball team captured the winning laurels at the Exchange Club Christmas Tournament, while our own Karl Kreiser was named Most Valuable Player.

Mar. 8, 1974: The National Honor Society induction service was held and 11 members of our class were chosen for membership. They were: Rick Long, Antoinette Deascenti, Lynne Beck, Joy Ratcliff, Tom McCarthy, Mike Keiper, Brian Keck, Anne Denney, Steve Stehman, Jeanne Holt and Donna Swisher.

May 18, 1974: After a long year of fund-raising, planning, and hard work, we presented the seniors with a prom designed around the theme, "Scarborough Fair." A lighted carousel decorated the center of the gym, while couples danced to the music of "Horizon." Christine Bucher was chosen as our Prom Princess. Later, couples enjoyed post-prom festivities at the Lancaster Y.M.C.A.

Another year became a misty memory, and another summer faded into the past. At last, the final milestone had been reached - we became seniors on . . .

Sept. 4, 1974: We attended our final "First day of school" assembly. Student Council officers presiding over the assembly were: Pres. - Brian Keck, Vice Pres. - Joy Ratcliff, Secretary - Jeanne Holt and Treas. - Joe Fry.

Sept. 13, 1974: Our last class elections were held and we entrusted the leadership of our senior year to: Diane Haberstroh - Pres., Bill Wolpert - Vice Pres., Kim Hershey - Secretary, Chris Bucher - Treasurer and Anne Denney - Historian.

Sept. 17, 1974: It was our class's turn to pay homage to Lloyd Mifflin. Rick Long recited the poem, "Portrait of My Mother" at the annual Mifflin Memorial Service.

Oct. 19, 1974: Karen Kissinger reigned as Homecoming Queen 1974 at the football contest between Columbia and Cedar Crest. Ladies of the court were Christine Bucher, Antoinette Deascenti, Kim Hershey and Jeanne Holt.

Nov. 1974: The white rose was chosen as our class flower and "The Way We Were" became our class song.

Dec. 20, 1974: Students danced to the music of "Maxwell" at a Christmas dance sponsored by the Class of 1975.

Feb. 22, 1975: "Maxwell" again provided the music for our Sir Valentine dance where Scott Zeamer was crowned "Sir Valentine." Other candidates were Brian Keck and Rick Bowers.

Mar. 14, 1975: Seven more members of our class were inducted into the National Honor Society. They were: George Englert, Karl Kreiser, Carrol Fleming, Eileen Smoker, Harvey Gantz, Joe Fry and Paula Houseal. We chose Miss Ruth Crum to be inducted as an honorary member. Officers presiding over the induction service were Pres. - Brian Keck, Vice Pres. - Antoinette Deascenti; Secretary - Anne Denney and Treas. - Donna Swisher.

Mar. 18, 1975: Our two political parties, Alpha and Omega, led by Bill and Larry Wolpert held their elections. Winners were: Mayor - Scott Zeamer; other offices were gained by: Buff Hollingsworth, Joe Fry, Doug Crouse, Mike Keiper, Joy Ratcliff, Cindy Myers, Warny Draper, Karen Kissinger and Antoinette Deascenti, Ron Welsh, Deb Webb, Rick Bowers, Lynne Beck, Diane Laudenberger, Kim Hershey, Chris Bucher, Sue McCarty, Paula Houseal, Rick Long, Brian Keck, Terri Post, Harvey Gantz, George Englert, and Diane Haberstroh.

Mar. 21, 1975: Try-outs for Commencement speakers were held during the first period and Antoinette Deascenti, Anne Denney, Brian Keck, Joy Ratcliff and Sharon Smith were chosen as speakers. Alternates selected were Diane Wickenheiser and Jeanne Holt.

Apr. 18-19, 1975: "The Drunkard" was presented as the Senior Class play, under the direction of Miss Cynthia Showers. Main characters were portrayed by Corrinne Best, Ron Welsh, Donna Swisher, Bill Wolpert, Sharon Smith, Sherlynn Bessick, Rick Bowers, Warren Draper and Lisa Seifried.

May 2, 1975: Our class celebrated the return of spring with the crowning of Miss Kim Hershey as the 31st Queen of the May. The other ladies of the court included the Maid of Honor, Karen Kissinger, Terri Post, Mary Elliot, Diane Haberstroh, Antoinette Deascenti, Jeanne Holt and Christine Bucher.

May 14, 1975: The "Fernwood" resort was the destination for 90 seniors as we spent our class trip swimming, horseback riding, ice skating, playing tennis and enjoying a gorgeous day in the Poconos.

May 17, 1975: The junior class presented us with a prom entitled "Summer Breeze." Ocean scenes and a colorful fountain added to the magic of the evening. Music was provided by "Three Hits and a Miss." Bob Holdsworth and Kim Hershey were selected as king and queen for the evening. Post-prom activities were again held at the Lancaster Y.M.C.A.

May 24, 1975: Mike Keiper, Scott Zeamer and the mile relay team consisting of Paul Meshey, Terry Procter, Neil Howard, and Rick Bowers all placed in the State Track Meet. Columbia won the Class B championship with 20 points.

May 29, 1975: The class gathered for its final assembly - yearbook dedication. SUSQUEHANNOCK 1975 was dedicated to Mr. John Bradley, who was chosen for the highest honor our class could bestow. Gifts of appreciation were presented to several faculty members including Mr. John Gowarty and Mr. James Malone, our class advisors.

June 1, 1975: Our class paused to worship together at our baccalaureate service.

June 5, 1975: The 102nd annual Commencement exercises were held as the Class of 1975 officially became Columbia High School graduates.

Our brief moments together have all come to an end. The friendships and love, the joy and sadness, the laughter and tears of a special time in our lives are gone forever. "So it's the laughter, we will remember, whenever we remember, the way we were, . . . the way we were."
